

PAUL D. MARABLE III

General Counsel

Texas Farm Bureau

Paul D. Marable III has served as General Counsel for Texas Farm Bureau since April 2001. Prior to joining TFB, Marable represented TFB and its affiliates as outside corporate counsel through the Waco law firm of Fulbright, Winniford & Marable.

Marable earned his BBA from the University of Texas at Austin in 1971, his jurisprudence degree from Baylor University, Waco, in 1974, and was licensed by the State Bar of Texas in October, 1974. As a shareholder with Fulbright, Winniford & Marable, he practiced in the area of wills, estate planning and probate, corporate, transaction and general business law.

Marable is a past president of the Waco-McLennan County Young Lawyer's Association and Waco-McLennan County Lawyer's Association and a former director and secretary of the Texas Young Lawyers Association. Currently, he is a member of the Texas Bar Association, the Waco-McLennan County Bar Association, and the Waco-McLennan County Estate Planning Council. Marable has been a speaker at local estate planning seminars.

The TFB general counsel is active in community affairs, having served as a director of Huaco Council of Campfire, Family Counseling and Children's Services, Waco Business League, Waco Chamber of Commerce, and Waco-McLennan County Dispute Resolution Center. Marable has also served as a Waco ISD volunteer partner, participating with first-grade students at Dean Highland Elementary. Marable is a member of the Waco ISD Alumni Association, the Waco Chamber of Commerce and is a member and past president of the Waco Founder Lions Club.

He is an active member of the First Methodist Church and a past chair of its Board and Finance Committee and FUMC Foundation.

Marable is married to the former Debbie Lillard. They have five children and three grandchildren.
